

VET Student Loans – Privacy and information handling procedures

MMT abides by the Privacy Act (Commonwealth) and keeps student information private and confidential. MMT only collects information that relates to a student's training and takes all reasonable steps to protect personal information from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure including restricted access to electronic files, secure storage of paper files.