RTO Code: 0393

CHC51015 Diploma of Counselling

Release 1 – December 2015

Course Overview

This qualification reflects the role of counsellors who work with clients on personal and psychological issues using established counselling modalities.

They use communication, micro counselling and interviewing skills and draw on varied counselling therapies to assist clients.

At this level, the counsellor will be working in defined and supported counselling roles in established agencies, rather than in independent practice.

Entry Requirements

To be eligible for enrolment you are required to

1. Be 18 years of age;
2. Provide a Photo ID with proof of age;
3. Have completed CHC43315 Certificate in Mental Health; or
4. An equivalent completed Certificate IV qualification; or
5. Currently working in the industry.

Marr Mooditj Training receives subsidised funding to deliver this qualification to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people by the Department of Training and Workforce Development. If you are not an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander you will be required to pay the full service fee for the qualification. This fee is calculated at the time of enrolment and further information is available by contacting Marr Mooditj Training.

Non-Concession:	$5,500.50

VET Student loans are available for this Diploma subject to eligibility. Please note that this is a loan from the Commonwealth and as such you will have a personal debt that is repayable to the Commonwealth. This may reduce future borrowing capacity and you may wish to seek independent financial advice before applying for this loan.

Marr Mooditj can provide you with information regarding the eligibility criteria at your request, or you can access information on this website: <https://www.education.gov.au/vet-student-loans>.

Screening Requirements

Students are required to obtain a Working with Children Check card and current Police Clearance, issued no more than 3 months from the commencement of their course. You may apply for these when you apply for enrolment and our staff will assist you with this process. Please note that you will be required to meet the fees for these checks, and that Marr Mooditj Training authorised staff will be required to sign the documents so that you may apply for lower rate as a Volunteer student.
