Marr Mooditj Training

Fees and Charges

- All Marr Mooditj qualifications are subsidised by the WA Department of Training and Workforce Development (DTWD) for the target group of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.
- If you are not a member of this target group you will be required to pay the full service fee for the qualification in which you seek to enrol. This information is provided in a separate Fees Schedule.
- All students must be charged a fee for subsidised courses. Fees are calculated according to the rules and charges by the WA Department of Training and Workforce Development.
- Fees are indicative (see previous page). This means that you will be charged the full qualification fee, if the course you are doing is split over more than one year the final full fee may change. Any changes will only be applied to units of the qualification delivered in the second and subsequent years.

For further information and/or clarification on any of the above please contact Marr Mooditj Training.

Concession and non-concession

You are eligible for concession rates if:

- you have Pensioner Concession Card;
- you have a Health Care Card;
- receive Abstudy;
- receive Youth Allowance or Workforce Australia/Parents Next support program

If you are not eligible for the concession rate you will have to pay the non-concession rate detailed on page 1.

Payment Options

No fees are paid in advance to Marr Mooditj Training.

On enrolment students will take up one of the following payment options:

- Pay by cash or direct debit as you progress with your studies;
- Centrepay deduction using Centrelink direct debit (This is a payment option to be deducted from your Centrelink payment with your written consent).

Marr Mooditj Training has a refund policy in place for students. Please refer to the Student Handbook for more detail.
